

Critical Analysis

- 1. On average, how much of a raise do politicians get when they become lobbyists?
- 2. What do lobbyists do, anyway?
- 3. What is the big story this infographic tells?
- 4. Why do you think politicians get such a raise to become lobbyists?
- 5. Why do so many politicians become lobbyists?
- 6. What is one positive consequence and one negative consequence of this?
- 7. Why do you think more members of the Senate than members of the House of Representatives become lobbyists?
- 8. When politicians become lobbyists we call this the revolving door. Why do you think the U.S. Congress does NOT make a law outlawing politicians becoming lobbyists?
- 9. Make a claim about the revolving door between politicians and lobbyists and its impact on democracy, and support it with one piece of evidence.
- 10. Elizabeth Warren, Senator of Massachusetts, has proposed legislation that would ban politicians from becoming lobbyists for life. Could they be lobbyists after life? Would you support Warren's proposal?
- 11. Do you think it's likely this proposal becomes law?
- 12. What do you think the following would think about that proposal?
  - Senators
  - Lobbyists
  - Political Parties
  - Interest Groups
  - Politicians from either major party
  - Donald Trump
  - House Members
  - Liberals
  - Conservatives

Learning Extension

Browse this list from Open Secrets of all the former politicians who are now lobbyists! And read this VOX article: I was a lobbyist for more than 6 years. I quit. My conscience couldn't take it anymore.

Action Extension

Contact your member of congress and ask them whether they would pledge to not become a lobbyist after they leave Congress.

Visual Extension

